SECTION B: DISCOVERYBOUND CODE OF CONDUCT STATEMENT

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. – Mark 12:30,31

Program participants shall strive to support a community atmosphere that is consistent with Christian Science principles characterized by integrity, compassion, and respect, and to be loving in their actions toward others through the following commitments when participating in a program:

1. Be free from illegal drugs, cannabis, cannabis-infused products, vaping, tobacco products, and alcohol.
2. Refrain from sexually focused behavior outside of marriage during our programs and support an atmosphere focused on community connections.
3. Refrain from sharing explicit materials, pictures, or stories, as well as excessive public displays of affection.
4. Refrain from the use of offensive language.
5. Refuse to tolerate harassment or abuse of any kind, including physical, sexual, psychological, or verbal.
6. Refuse to tolerate discrimination on the basis of gender, race, age, disability, sexual orientation, nationality or ethnic origin, political, economic, or social group.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to uphold DiscoveryBound's Code of Conduct and to support a safe, respectful, and uplifting atmosphere.

I understand that if I violate the trust inherent in this agreement, I will be held accountable for my choices and actions. If a violation occurs during an event, I may be asked to leave. Any required travel arrangements will be my responsibility (or my parent(s)' responsibility, if applicable), and dismissal will be without refund or reduction of tuition. If you have any questions or would like to discuss the Code of Conduct, please contact Susan Barner, DiscoveryBound Outreach and Compass Director, at 303.779.3000, x136.
